Driscoll's is the world's leading supplier of berries. It has worked hard to maintain a caring image ("we are honored to ... work with the amazing people that make Driscoll's possible, from farm workers out in the field to our farmers and employees"). But the "farm workers out in the field" tell a different story, one of poverty-level wages, inadequate housing, sexual harrassment, and retaliation against workers who organize. The farm workers in the San Quintín Valley of Baja California have called for a boycott of the company's products until the growers agree to negotiate a contract with the workers' union (SINDJA). Show your solidarity with these brave workers by spreading the word about the Driscoll's berry boycott.
